

TEREBRA (ACUS) CURVILINEATA VAR. CALVERTENSIS n. var.

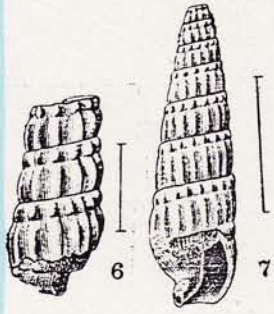

Plate XL, Figs. 6, 7.

Description.—Shell elongate, tapering slowly; whorls constricted about one-third of the way below the suture by a distinct groove above which the ribs are strongly tuberculate; ribs straight, regular, distant; no spiral sculpture.

Length (of fragment), 17 mm.; diameter, 5 mm.

Occurrence.—CALVERT FORMATION. Plum Point.

Collections.—Maryland Geological Survey, Johns Hopkins University, U. S. National Museum. MARTIN B.C. 1904 p14c

Figs. 6, 7. TEREBRA (ACUS) CURVILINEATA Dall var. CALVERTENSIS n. var.139, 141
6. View of fragment showing typical sculpture. Plum Point.
7. Ventral view of more complete specimen. Same locality.